Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 and 10 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim 1, 3-10 and 12-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Orr (US 6760535).

Regarding Claim 1: Orr discloses a recording apparatus comprising: a continuous recording unit operable to perform continuous recording of broadcast content broadcasted from N hours ago to a current time onto a recording medium (column 2 lines 38-46); a receiving unit operable to receive a specification on a period of time within the broadcast content, wherein receiving unit displays a menu in which the current time is associated with a time N hours ago prior to the current time, and a retention of a broadcast content after the end of a broadcasting is based on the received specification on the period of time via the menu (column 6 lines 33-48); a setting unit operable to set a protective attribute onto a part of the recording medium corresponding to the period of time, wherein the broadcast content is made up of a plurality of video units, the continuous recording unit being operable to perform the continuous recording by (i) receiving a broadcast to obtain a new video unit (column 2 lines 38-46), and (ii) overwriting an oldest video unit among the video units with the new video unit (column 5 lines 4-12), and the part of the recording medium having the protective attribute is protected against the overwriting performed by the continuous recording unit (column 5 lines 13-21); and a pointer operable to indicate a location of writing in the recording medium, the continuous recording unit being operable to perform the overwriting by (i) writing the new video unit to the location of writing (column 4 lines 58 to column 5 line 3); indicated by the pointer, and (ii) subsequently adding a size of the new video unit to the pointer, wherein said recording apparatus is operable to protect against overwriting by adding an offset to the pointer when the pointer reaches a vicinity of the part having the protective attribute such that the pointer skips the part having the protective attribute, (column 6 lines 49-59 and column 7 lines 57-66).

Regarding Claim 3: Orr discloses a recording apparatus of claim 1, wherein the part of the recording medium having the protective attribute stores therein two or more video units, which represent one of a plurality of broadcast programs that have been broadcasted between N hours ago and the current time, the recording apparatus further comprises a display unit operable to display a schedule table of the plurality of broadcast programs (column 2 lines 53-63 and column 3 lines 42-63), and the period of time is period during which the one of the plurality of broadcast programs is being broadcasted (column 3 lines 14-22).

Regarding Claim 4: Orr discloses a recording apparatus of claim 1, wherein the specification is made by an operation of inputting_starting time and an ending time of the period (column 6 lines 49-59 and column 7 lines 3-7).

Regarding Claim 5: Orr discloses a recording apparatus of claim 1, wherein the specification is made by an operation of inputting a starting time, and the part of the recording medium having the protective attribute stores therein two or more video units which correspond to either (a) a predetermined length of time beginning at the starting time or (b) a predetermined length of time into past from the starting time (column 7 lines 3-7).

Regarding Claim 6: Orr discloses a recording apparatus of claim 1, further comprising: a loading unit operable to load a portable recording medium (column 3 lines 4-13); and a copying unit operable to copy, onto the portable recording medium, the part of the recording medium having the protective attribute (column 4 lines 8-18).

Regarding Claim 7: Orr discloses a recording apparatus of claim 6, wherein the part of the recording medium keeps the protective attribute there on until the part finishes being copied onto the portable recording medium, at which time the protective attribute gets cancelled (column 4 lines 8-18).

Regarding Claim 8: Orr discloses a recording apparatus of claim 1, wherein the part of the recording medium having the protective attribute stores therein two or more video units, which represent one of a plurality of broadcast programs that have been broadcasted between N hours ago and the current time, the recording apparatus further comprises a reproducing unit operable to reproduce each of the video units recorded on the recording medium, and the setting unit, when each of the plurality of broadcast programs finishes being reproduced, inquires of the user whether or not a period corresponding to each broadcast program should be retained, and the specification is an affirmative reply in response to the inquiry (column 7 lines 57 to column 8 lines 9).

Regarding Claim 9: Orr discloses a recording apparatus of claim 1, wherein the part of the recording medium having the protective attribute stores therein two or more video units, which represent one of a plurality of broadcast programs that have been broadcasted between N hours ago and the current time, the recording apparatus further comprises a reproducing unit operable to reproduce each of the video units recorded on the recording medium, and the specification indicates that a period corresponding to a broadcast program currently being reproduced should be retained (column 7 lines 57 to column 8 lines 9).

Regarding Claims 10 and 12-18: Claims 10 and 12-18 are rejected for the same subject matter as claims 1 and 3-9 respectively.
